Ketchikan's Restaurant Guide

Upper End Dining:

Cape Fox Lodge is located a short tram ride from Ketchikan's famous Creek Street. Menu items include a wide spread of Alaskan seafood, including Alaska King Crab, Halibut and Salmon. Unique menu items such as Reindeer sausage and Bison burgers add variety. Not an adventurous eater? Don't fret, the menu is chock full of "the usuals" as well. 800 Venetia Way Weekdays 7a-9p; Weekends 7a-10p

Bar Harbor is an intimate dining spot with a CIA trained owner/chef. The Seared Tuna, Gorgonzola Fries and Scallops are terrific. It's approximately a twenty minute walk from downtown and is situated in a quaintly decorated house. On nice days, the restaurant offers outdoor seating that provides a beautiful view of the harbor. Bar Harbor has a nice wine list and offers innovative specials. Reservations are recommended as the restaurant has limited hours and is very popular with the locals.

Ph: 907.225.2813; 2813 Tongass Ave. Mon-Sat 5p-9p; Sun Closed

Annabelle's is located in the heart of downtown. The restaurant is fashioned with a beautiful historic restored bar, offering both casual and fine dining. The menu offers a wide variety of choices. Annabelle's serves lunch and dinner daily with a full bar featuring wines by the glass and cocktail service.

326 Front Street-Downtown. Mon-Sun 10a-10p

Best Value:
